THE MNISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED) (a) and (b) There is no provision of special subsidies on food stuffs for the border States as such.

However, foodgrains (wheat and rice) are supplied at specially subsidised prices to the inhabitants of tribal majority States of North-East and areas under Integrated Tribal Development Projects in the country. These prices are Rs. 50 per quintal below the normal Central Issue Prices of foodgrains supplied under the Public Distribution System.

Under a scheme applicable to predominantly hilly States such as Arunachal Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu & Kashmir, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Nagaland, Tripura and Sikkim, reimbursement of actual cost of transportation of foods grains from base depots of Food Corporation of India (FCI) to the Principle Distribution Centres is also given by FCI to the State Governments.
